

THE BEST DAMN CARD GAME. PERIOD.

(A CARDS AGAINST HUMANITY VARIATION MADE BY PUTACUPINIT.COM)

STEP 1:

Print this file! Do it at home or at a print shop (though a shop is easiest).

This game should be printed on card stock. You can use a light weight if you only plan to use this game at a single shower (to save paper and money.) If you plan to use it for more than one game, you may want to go for a heavier card stock (like 80 lb).

Note: If you have the ability to print double sided card backs are included - and they are pretty cool if we do say so ourselves.

STEP 2:

Cut out the cards with scissors or a paper cutter.

Blank white cards are for you to customize your game. Use the names of loved ones, local hot spots, favorite celebrities, movies, etc.

Tie a ribbon around your stack of cards or buy a container to put them in.

HOW TO PLAY

Each player draws 10 white cards (or less depending on the party size).

One person will start the game by reading a black card out loud. This will be your Card Czar.

All other players will use a card from their hand (or cards in the case of multiple blanks) to fill in the blanks by placing their choice card/s in the center of the table face down in a pile.

The black card reader will now shuffle the answers and read each card as it completes the sentence or answers the question. For full effect the Card Czar should re-read the black card before each answer. Once done, the Czar will pick the funniest answer and the person who submitted the card will get a point.

2 Card answers can be secured with paper clips or not shuffled. Cards should be played in the order they need to be read.

All players will now draw a card (or cards) so that they have 10 white cards in hand.

The next person (choose a direction, counter-clockwise or clockwise) will be the black card reader — and the cycle continues.

This is a menstrual edition of the popular game, “Cards Against Humanity.” This game is free and distributed under a creative commons license by PUT A CUP IN IT.
